

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Elkhart, IL December 27, 2017

The Elkhart Historical Society announces the return of the ever popular Karl Luthin, DVM, to the Dinner Lecture podium, Friday January 26, at 5:30pm, at the Wild Hare Café in Horsefeathers Shop, Elkhart Illinois. Dr. Karl will regale us with the challenges of training horses for the movies. Luthin's credentials are numerous from both the professional veterinarian standpoint but also from the aspect of the big screen as a reenactor. Some of the movies which Luthin has been a part of are: "Gods and Generals", "Glory", The "John Adams", "Into the West" mini series, "Gettysburg", "Cold Mountain", and most recently providing a tremendous amount of equipment as well as the horse Daniel Day Lewis rode in "Lincoln". As those who have attended past lectures given by this fascinating man can attest, it will hold the audience, right through the question and answer session following the talk. The cost per person is $40 which includes the lecture and dinner which features a choice of Beef Bourguignon or Baked Crusted Chicken Breast, both entrees come with mashed potatoes, baby carrots and green beans, roll and dessert, For complete menu and reservation form, please see the website: www.elkharthistoricalsociety.org. Reservations are required and can be made by calling 217 947 2238, by no later than January 19; once confirmed checks can be mailed to The Elkhart Historical Society at PO 255 Elkhart IL, or dropped off at the Country Bumpkin Shop at 103 Gov. Oglesby St. Elkhart IL.
